Tech Terms

Donald L. & Ellijah B.
Tech Terms Activity

What Words Confuse You?
Left Click

Single-click - selects (or highlights) an object

Double-click - executes the function associated with that object.
Right Click

This opens up a dropdown menu with multiple options.
Gigabytes (GB)

The measurement of how much data a computer can hold

More gigabytes = More storage
Copy- duplicates the text

Paste- drop duplicated text in a new place

Cut- duplicates the text and deletes it from the original location
An internet browser is a way for you to access the internet.
Common browsers are:
- Internet Explorer
- Google Chrome
- Safari
- Firefox
Social Media

- Allows people from all over the world to connect with each other instantly.
- You can share words or pictures that can be seen by anyone.

ex: Facebook, Pinterest, Instagram, Twitter
A self-portrait photograph taken by a camera phone or a digital camera. These are usually shared on social media.
Smartphones

- iPhone 6
- Samsung Galaxy S5
- HTC One M8
Wearable Technology

- Clothing and accessories incorporates computer and other electronic technologies.
- Ex: Google Glass, Smart Watches, etc.
Apps

How do they work?

- Phone/Tablet: Once downloaded, start the app by pressing on its icon. Then follow any directions given by the app.
Streaming

A technique for transferring information, so that it can be processed at a continuous and steady stream.
Cloud Platforms:

- iCloud - The digital storage service for Apple Inc.
- Dropbox - The file hosting service made by Dropbox Inc.
- Google Drive - The file storage system managed by Google
Microsoft Word - computer program which you must pay for
-it saves all documents to your computer

Google Drive - free website on the internet
-it saves all documents to the internet
Drag and Drop

Move something from one place to another

1. Move the pointer to the object
2. Press, and hold down, the left button on the mouse to "grab" the object
3. While still holding the left button, "Drag" the object to the desired location by moving the pointer
4. "Drop" the object by releasing the left button
Download - The receiving of data over the Internet

Upload - The sending of a file from your computer
Wi-Fi (Wireless Fidelity)

Allows computers and other devices to communicate with each other.
Fourth Generation (4G)

The fourth generation of telephone services for cell phones and smart phones.
The main difference between the two is the accessibility.

- Wi-Fi is open to any device that can pick up its signal in a certain range.
- 4G is used by individual devices at greater ranges.
Bluetooth allows for short-range connections between computers, cell phones and other devices.
Troubleshooting

How to diagnose the source of a problem for hardware and software
Confusing Terms (Continued)

Let’s discuss confusing tech terms from our list.